19. The fees charged by Moritt Hock in the Chapter 11 Cases are billed in accordance with Moritt Hock's existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Compensation Period. The rates Moritt Hock charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in the Chapter 11 Cases are the same rates Moritt Hock charges for professional and paraprofessional services rendered in comparable non-bankruptcy related matters. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable non-bankruptcy cases in a competitive national legal market. The disclosures required by the U.S. Trustee Guidelines regarding the customary and comparable compensation are annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

20. Moritt Hock maintains computerized records of the time spent by all Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals in connection with its representation of the Creditors' Committee in the Chapter 11 Cases. SUMMARY OF SERVICES PERFORMED BY
MORITT HOCK DURING THE COMPENSATION PERIOD

22. The services provided by Moritt Hock during the Compensation Period were actual and necessary for the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases, performed at the request of the Creditors' Committee and commensurate with the complexity and significance of the matter. The variety and complexity of the issues in the Chapter 11 Cases and the need to act or respond to such issues on an expedited basis in furtherance of the Creditors' Committee's needs and the interests of the Debtors' unsecured creditors required the expenditure of significant time by Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals from numerous legal disciplines during the Compensation Period.

23. The following is a summary of the professional services rendered by Moritt Hock during the Compensation Period. This summary is organized in accordance with the ABA Bankruptcy Code Set, commonly used in bankruptcy matters. In classifying services into task codes, Moritt Hock attempted to place the services performed in the category that most closely related to the services provided. The below does not include summaries for certain task codes for which a de minimis amount of time was billed during the Compensation Period.

24. Moreover, the following summary of services rendered during the Compensation Period is not intended to be a detailed description of the work performed. Rather, it merely is an attempt to highlight certain of those areas in which services were rendered to the Creditors' Committee, as well as to identify some of the matters and issues that Moritt Hock was required to address during the Compensation Period.

B110 - CASE ADMINISTRATION

Total Hours	Fees
17.60	$8,388.50

25. This category includes time spent by Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessional performing various administrative services in order to represent the Creditors' Committee effectively and efficiently, including, among other things, (i) reviewing and analyzing pleadings and other documents filed by the Debtors and third parties relating to the 2004 Investigation and the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action; (ii) apprising Moritt Hock attorneys and paraprofessionals of recent filings and upcoming deadlines; (iii) preparing internal task lists and case calendars; and (iv) communicating with Akin Gump, primary counsel to the Creditors' Committee.

26. Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals also monitored the dockets for the Chapter 11 Cases, the Adversary Proceeding and all appeals to remain apprised of all critical matters. For each significant filing, Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals worked to ensure that the appropriate parties were notified of its contents, relevant response deadlines, hearing dates and any other critical matters related thereto.

27. Moritt Hock believes it was able to address all case management issues in connection with matters within the scope of its engagement in an effective and efficient manner.

B160 - FEE/EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS

Total Hours	Fees
145.10	$68,715.50

28. This category includes the time spent by Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals preparing and drafting, inter alia: (a) the Application of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Sears Holdings Corporation, et al. to Retain and Employ Moritt Hock & Hamroff LLP as Special Conflicts Counsel, Effective Nunc Pro Tunc to January 2, 2020 (the “Retention Application”) to investigate, commence, prosecute, settle and otherwise dispose of the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action which Retention Application was filed on April 9, 2020 [ECF No. 7798] and approved by the Court on April 30, 2020, nunc pro tunc to January 2, 2020 [ECF No. 7884]; and (b) the Monthly Fee Statements.

29. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, each of the Monthly Fee Statements contained a list of individuals who rendered services to the Creditors' Committee during the relevant compensation period, information as to each individual's title, billing rate and hours worked and a comprehensive breakdown of the fees incurred and disbursements expended. To minimize costs in connection with this time-intensive process, Moritt Hock relied on paraprofessionals to prepare the initial drafts of the Retention Application and Monthly Fee Statements, thereby limiting the time spent by attorneys on the review of fees, where reasonably practicable.

30. Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals have also communicated with, and responded to requests from, representatives from M-III Partners respecting, among other things, weekly accrual information.

B120 – ASSET ANALYSIS AND RECOVERY

Total Hours	Fees
216.30	$91,159.50

B191 – LITIGATION/ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

Total Hours	Fees
104.40	$47,414.00

31. These two categories include time spent by Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals in connection with their role as Special Conflicts Counsel to the Creditors'

Committee, pursuant to the Moritt Hock Retention Order. Through this role, Moritt is, among other things, conducting the investigation of the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action.

32. Specifically, Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals, among other things: (i) reviewed relevant pleadings and underlying facts relating to the contemplated Jointly Asserted Causes of Action; (ii) served subpoenas for the production of documents relating to the contemplated Jointly Asserted Causes of Action; (iii) engaged in numerous meet and confers with counsel for certain of the subpoenaed parties regarding the Creditors' Committee's subpoenas, including but not limited to international service issues, (iv) conducted related legal research; (v) resolved discovery disputes related to the scope of the Creditors' Committee's document requests; (vi) reviewed and analyzed materials produced in response to subpoenas, and (vii) prepared materials for presentation to main counsel and the Creditors' Committee.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY DISBURSEMENTS

33. Moritt Hock seeks allowance of reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $7,954.53 for expenses incurred during the Compensation Period in the course of providing professional services to the Creditors' Committee. Moritt Hock's disbursement policies pass through all out-of-pocket expenses at actual cost or an estimated actual cost when the actual cost is difficult to determine. For example, as it relates to computerized research, Moritt Hock believes that it does not make a profit on that service as a whole although the cost of any particular search is difficult to ascertain. Other reimbursable expenses (whether the service is performed by Moritt Hock in-house or through a third party vendor) include, but are not limited to, long-distance calls, overtime meals, deliveries, discovery, telephonic court appearances and travel.

FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED IN AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES

34. Bankruptcy Code section 330 provides, in relevant part, that the Court may award to a professional person “reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered[.]” See 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). In turn, Bankruptcy Code section 330 provides as follows:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonably based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

35. The clear congressional intent and policy expressed in Bankruptcy Code section 330 is to provide for adequate compensation in order to continue to attract qualified and competent bankruptcy practitioners to bankruptcy cases. In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 133 B.R. 13, 20 (Bantu. S.D.N.Y. 1991) (“Congress’ objective in requiring that the market, not the Court, establish attorneys' rates was to ensure that bankruptcy cases were staffed by appropriate legal specialists."); In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctrs., Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 850 (3d. Cir.1994) (citations and internal quotations omitted) ("Congress rather clearly intended to provide sufficient economic incentive to lure competent bankruptcy specialists to practice in the bankruptcy courts.").

36. In assessing the "reasonableness" of the fees requested, the Second Circuit has stated that courts should consider the factors enumerated in Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., while also incorporating the "lodestar method." See Arbor Hill Concerned Citizens Neighborhood Ass 'n v. County of Albany and Albany County Bd. of Elections, 522 F.3d 182, 190 (2d Cir. 2007) (citing Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir.1974), abrogated on other grounds by Blanchard v. Bergeron, 489 U.S. 87, 92-93, 96 (1989)). The "lodestar method" of calculating the reasonable fee contemplates "the number of hours reasonably expended . . . multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate." See Hensley v. Eckerhart et al., 461 U.S. 424, 433 (1983); Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 789, 801 (2002); Perdue v. Kenny A., 130 S.Ct. 1662, 1672 (2010); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc. 133 B.R. 13 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 1991). The factors set forth in Johnson and In re First Colonial Corp. of Am., 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977) have been adopted by most courts.⁸ See In re Nine Assocs., Inc., 76 B.R. 943, 945 (S.D.N.Y. 1987) (adopting First Colonial/Johnson analysis); In re Cuisine Magazine, Inc., 61 B.R. 210, 212-13 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y 1986) (same); Green v. City of New York, 403 Fed. Appx. 626, 629 (2d Cir. 2010) (summary order); see generally 3 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 330.03[9] (Lawrence P. King ed., 16th ed. 2016) (describing First Colonial and Johnson as the “leading cases to be considered in determining a reasonable allowance of compensation”).

37. Moritt Hock respectfully submits that a consideration of these factors should result in the Court’s allowance of the full compensation sought in this Application.

- a. Time and Labor Required. Moritt Hock billed a total of 344.80 hours of professional services and 138.60 hours of paraprofessional and other non-legal services during the Compensation Period. As evidenced by this Application, Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals worked diligently and efficiently without unnecessary duplication of efforts throughout the Compensation Period. This is especially true when considering the nature and complexity of the issues that arose in the Chapter 11 Cases during the Compensation Period. In particular, the Compensation Period involved many material issues that required analysis of data, researching of applicable case law, and follow-up with subpoenaed parties on their productions or lack thereof. Moritt Hock respectfully submits that the hours spent were reasonable given the size and complexity of the Chapter 11 Cases and the significant legal issues raised.
- b. Novelty and Difficulty of the Questions. Moritt Hock tasked knowledgeable attorneys to research, analyze and provide advice on difficult and complex bankruptcy, litigation, finance and other issues. As further described herein, Moritt Hock’s skilled teams assisted the Creditors’ Committee in researching and analyzing legal issues pertaining to third party challenges to the service of subpoenas, including claims of immunity under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act and objections based on the Hague Convention.
- c. Skill Requisite to Perform the Legal Services Properly. Moritt Hock believes that its recognized expertise in the area of bankruptcy litigation and corporate restructuring, its ability to draw from highly experienced professionals in other areas of Moritt Hock’s practice and its creative approach to the resolution of issues has benefited the Debtors and the Creditors’ Committee. Due to the nature and complexity of the legal issues Moritt Hock was retained to investigate and/or prosecute in the Chapter 11 Cases, Moritt Hock was required to exhibit a high degree of legal skill in areas related to, inter alia, bankruptcy and litigation matters. Additionally, Moritt Hock’s strong working relationship with the Creditors’ Committee’s other legal advisors enabled Moritt Hock to work with such advisors to track and analyze data produced by subpoenaed parties and address relevant legal issues during the course of its investigation.

- d. Preclusion of Other Employment by Applicant Due to Acceptance of the Case. Although Moritt Hock's representation of the Creditors' Committee did not preclude its acceptance of new clients, the demands for immediate and substantive action in connection with the investigation relating to the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action imposed significant burdens on Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals working concurrently on other matters.
- e. Customary Fee. The rates Moritt Hock charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in the Chapter 11 Cases are the same rates Moritt Hock charges for professional and paraprofessional services rendered in comparable non-bankruptcy matters. Moritt Hock's fee structure also is equivalent to the fee structure used by Moritt Hock for restructuring, workout, bankruptcy, insolvency and comparable matters, as well as similar complex corporate and litigation matters, whether in-court or otherwise, regardless of whether a fee application is required. The firm's customary hourly rates and rate structure reflect that restructuring and related matters typically involve great complexity, numerous tasks requiring a high level of expertise and severe time pressures, as is the case here. Moritt Hock's rate structure is similar to the rate structure used by other, similar law firms that work on other, similar matters.
- f. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 330 and 331, all fees sought by professionals employed under Bankruptcy Code section 1103 are contingent pending final approval by the Court and are subject to adjustment depending upon the services rendered and the results obtained. The contingency of full and actual compensation to Moritt Hock increased the risk Moritt Hock was assuming by representing the Creditors' Committee as special conflicts counsel in the Chapter 11 Cases.
- g. Time Limitations Imposed by the Client or Other Circumstances. As previously set forth herein, Moritt Hock was required to attend to certain issues arising in the investigation relating to the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action under compressed timelines. The tremendous efforts of Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals in completing this work permitted the Creditors' Committee to address effectively various issues for the benefit of the Debtors' unsecured creditors.
- h. Amount Involved and Results Obtained. Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals worked diligently to maximize value for the Debtors' estates and creditors. During the Compensation Period, and as described in the summary of services herein, Moritt Hock was instrumental in maximizing value for the benefit of unsecured creditors. In particular, Moritt Hock's efforts in connection with, among other things, the investigation relating to the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action, effectively maximized the potential assets available for distribution to unsecured creditors. Moritt Hock respectfully submits that the fees requested in this Application are reasonable and appropriate when considering the results obtained on behalf of unsecured creditors as more fully described in the summary of services.

- i. Experience, Reputation and Ability of Attorneys. Attorneys in Moritt Hock's Litigation & Restructuring group are consistently recognized as leading attorneys in the field of bankruptcy and bankruptcy related litigation as well as creditors' rights, business reorganizations and liquidations under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. During the Compensation Period, Moritt Hock solicited the skill and expertise of its attorneys, a number of which have practiced law for over 20 years in a number of jurisdictions and legal disciplines. Moritt Hock attorneys have actively represented creditors and creditors' committees, as well as other parties in interest, in chapter 11 cases. Moritt Hock's extensive experience enables it to perform the services described herein competently and expeditiously.
- j. "Undesirability" of the Cases. This factor is not applicable to the Chapter 11 Cases.
- k. Nature and Length of Professional Relationship. Moritt Hock has been rendering professional services to the Creditors' Committee since it was selected as special conflicts counsel to the Creditors' Committee on January 2, 2020.

38. For the reasons set forth above, the services rendered by Moritt Hock were necessary and beneficial to the Creditors' Committee and consistently performed in a timely manner. The compensation sought in this Application is reasonable in light of the value of such services to the Creditors' Committee and all unsecured creditors, Moritt Hock's demonstrated skill and expertise in the bankruptcy field (as well as other areas of expertise relevant to the Chapter 11 Cases) and the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners at Moritt Hock. Accordingly, Moritt Hock respectfully submits that the Court should approve the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses sought herein.

39. No agreement or understanding exists between Moritt Hock and any other person for the sharing of any compensation to be received for professional services rendered or to be rendered in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases. No prior application has been made in this Court or in any other court for the relief requested herein as it relates to the Compensation Period.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

To the extent that there are services rendered or expenses incurred that relate to the Compensation Period but were not processed prior to the preparation of the Application, Moritt Hock reserves the right to request additional compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

other and further relief as the Court deems just, proper and equitable.
